Today's teens and tweens practically live on their phones. In fact, they're the most connected generation ever. So, they want an easy way to connect to their friends and important things in their lives. Their passion for social networking is matched by their passion for the environment. They use technology and style to reflect who and what they are, which is ahead of the curve.

ATTRIBUTES

For teens and tweens whose lives center on connectivity, LG Cosmos Touch is perfect. Offering advanced messaging features at a very affordable price, this touchscreen with multiple home screens and slide-out QWERTY keyboard is truly unique. And unique is good, especially to these teens. Social networking, texting, instant messaging and more—all are a simple screen touch away. Not only is the overall design sleek and compact, it's eco-friendly attributes make it also responsible, incorporating recycled materials in the phone and packaging.

ADVANTAGES

TOUCH HERE

Advanced phone features are just a simple screen touch away.

THE REAL DEAL

A full, slide-out QWERTY keyboard is easier and faster to use than a virtual one.

MAKE A STATEMENT

The recycled materials appeal to users' sense of responsibility for the environment.

CONNECT TO EVERYTHING

Easy-to-access social networking features, texting, email, IM, blogs, online music, and more.

ROCK THIS SONG

Users can listen to their favorite music, which is a big hit with teens and tweens.

LOOK COOL

With the sleek style and intuitive, feature-forward design, it's the latest must-have phone.
