There are a just a few things I need my phone to do such as easy texting and smooth navigation, and this device definitely has me covered with its full slide-out QWERTY keyboard and 3" touchscreen. Oh and of course, while I'm out and about I like to capture and share what I'm doing, so I'm glad it comes with a solid camera too. Well ok, and I listen to music...a lot. Finally, it's gotta be prepaid; I can't be tied down with a big contract. Now, all that's not too much to ask, is it?
