Is it crazy to say my life is all about my social status? No way! And that's why LG DoublePlay is my perfect phone: it has not only one screen but two, meaning I'm always up on everything my friends are saying. And I never have to quit what I'm doing to reply!

Built to Perform - The split keyboard and dual screens means multitasking at its best, like being able to check my calendar while emailing my friends my availability.

Smart, meet Simple - Android™ 2.3 platform is so smooth and easy even a smartphone novice could figure it out.

Effortless Info - Google™ integration means if I need to email, go online, send an IM or find directions, it's built right in. No sweat!

Snap Away - The 5 MP camera takes great pictures quickly and posts them up to social networks without any hassle!

Hey Everyone! Cloud and group texting means replying to friends at top speed, with the ability to include a bunch of them at once.
